Learning about life in all its fullness

Opportunities to look out at the world to learn, to gaze, to wonder and become aware of the world in new ways; to wonder about life's 'WOWs' (things that are amazing) and 'OWs' (things that are worrying or upsetting).

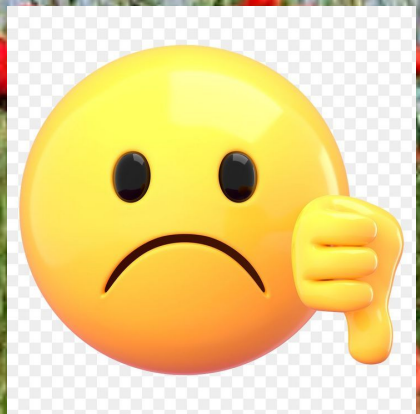
I wonder…….

Why did that happen?

WOW

or

OW?



Mirrors

Learning from life

Opportunities for us to reflect on our experiences, to consider some of the BIG questions of life and consider some possible answers. Exploring our own insights and perspectives, and those of others.

What happened?

How did it make you feel?

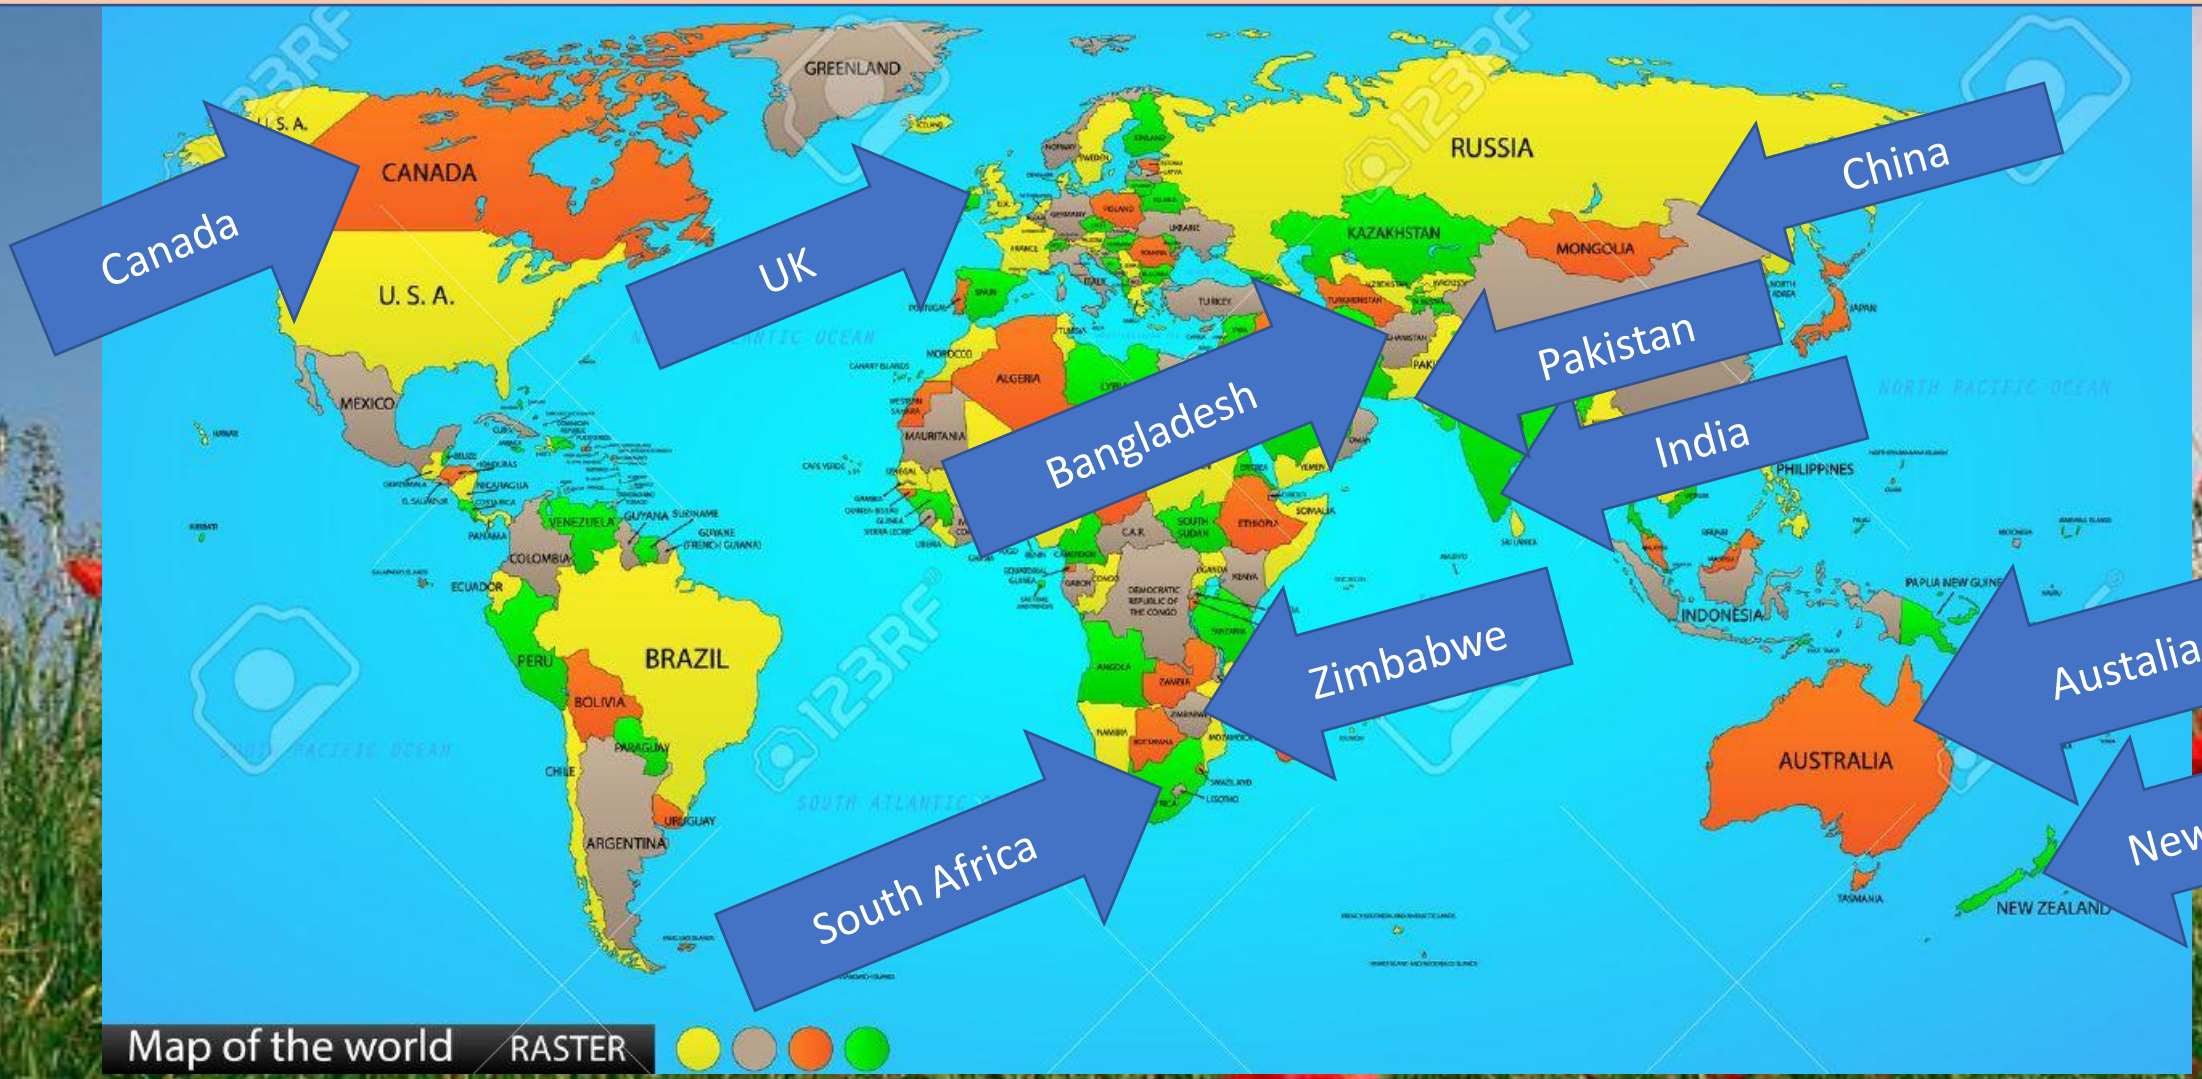
Who do we remember?

Who do we remember?

The British army was not strong enough on its own. The Government asked people from all around the world to help them in the fight. People came from all these places to help.



FRIENDSHIP

"Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." Mark 12:30-31

Who helps to keep us safe now?

Who keeps us safe now?

We also remember the people who keep us safe today.

Sergeant Pardeep Kaur MBE is in the Army.

She has worked to keep people safe in the UK, Kenya and South Sudan, and likes to raise money by running marathons.

Who – Emergency Services and Civilian Services

The Emergency and civilian services are people like:

- Doctors
- Police officers
- Paramedics
- Firefighters
- Charity workers

They work to keep us safe at home and in our community.

Saying thank you

When someone does something kind,
we say thank you.

How can we show that we are grateful for the kind things people do?

The Poppy

Lots of people use the red poppy to say thank you and remember the people who keep us safe.

Anyone can wear a poppy, in any place, at any time.

Remembrance is for everyone.

The red poppy is a symbol of Remembrance and hope for a peaceful future

Places to remember

Which of these places would you go to take part in Remembrance?

HOW do we remember?

There are lots of different ways to remember – you could:

Wear a poppy	Draw a picture	Sing a song	Write a story	Visit a memorial

Reflection

We remember people who ‘loved their neighbour’ and helped us in the past.

This week we think especially of people who have died in wars and fighting.

Let’s take a moment to think of some special people: soldiers, sailors, pilots, the police, firefighters and ambulance drivers - and all who risk their lives today for our safety.

A Children's Prayer of Remembrance

We remember those who stood for love and truth,
And thank you for the sacrifice they made
for me and you.
Thank you that we can now enjoy peace and
learn to love not fight,
Thank you that we can now sing and play,
and not be scared or hide.
We pray for other countries where children live in fear,
And there is war and fighting and many are in tears.
Please help to make things better, and bring some peace to them.
Protect all those who try and help to make friends again.
Amen.
