English Day 5

You are going to choose your best piece of work – either the letter or soldier's description.

You are going to up level (edit and improve it) and publish it, writing it up in your best handwriting and with illustrations. You can use the lined paper below or your own to make it a WOW piece of work which we can share on our school Dojo and our website.