Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II

Together in Collective Worship today, we reflected on what the loss of the Queen meant to us both individually and as a nation. The children were all very thoughtful and mature in their contributions and understood the dedication the Queen had shown during her very long life of service.

Our children are used to writing brief reflections to ideas that we have explored in worship as we do this regularly and display them in our Prayer Corners. With this being such a unique occasion, we have sent these home for the children to complete with you over the weekend and bring back to school on Monday. We have sent two copies in case you wanted to join us in this reflection too.

HM Queen Elizabeth II

Today I am feeling..... about the Queen

I remember the Queen .....

The Queen showed us how to be.....

I hope we never forget.....

Message from Mrs Crossley

I have been very proud of all our Aberford children this week as we settled back into routines after the summer break. Walking around lessons yesterday, I was so pleased to see such a calm, orderly environment in every classroom. Children were working quietly in every class and work in books is neat and well presented. We have already made a flying start to the curriculum.

We welcomed Mrs Richmond and Mrs Sanpher onto our staff team this week. They are settling in already and have been very impressed with how much work our children produce in lessons!
