Message from Mrs Crossley

The whole school looked fantastic today to celebrate the coronation of King Charles III this weekend. The children have learned about the coronation I collective worship this week and have also completed coronation based activities in class today. They can also link how this weekend's events link to one of our whole school history threads of Monarchy and Power.

SATs

Next week is Year 6 SATs week. They will start on Tuesday, after the bank holiday, and run all week. We want to wish all the best of luck to all our fantastic Year 6 pupils. You've worked so hard all year and will smash this!

Message from the office

Over the last couple of weeks, we have had several calls from local residents and businesses about parking issues on Main Street. We appreciate that parking is challenging with limited space, but please can we ask that you do not block driveways and park responsibly. If you have to park that little bit further away, don't worry if you will be a couple of minutes late as we will always stay with the children until they are collected.

Kippax Community Hub have recently set up a uniform exchange and have included uniform from all local primary schools including our school, please see information below on how to donate your old uniform.
