Headteacher – Nicola Crossley

Message from Mrs Crossley

School Council and Interview Day

I would like to say a big thank you to the Key Stage 2 members of our school council this week. On Wednesday, we interviewed three fantastic candidates for our maternity cover teacher position and it was the school council's job to interview the candidates and give us feedback on who they thought was the best person for the job. They wrote the questions themselves and thought carefully about what they needed to know in order to get the best for us. Mrs Shaw and Mrs Eastwood were very proud of them all and were very impressed with their professional manner. We are delighted to announce that the successful candidate is Miss Caitlin Patterson. Caitlin is currently working in a school in Hull whilst she is completing her Masters at Hull University in SEN and Inclusion and is delighted to be joining our Aberford family for the forthcoming academic year. We will send you a pen portrait of herself soon.

I would also like to say thank you to two of our school governors, Mrs Eastwood and Mrs Summers, for supporting us with the interview day.

Break the Rules Day – Friday 28th May

Children (and teachers), it's time to break the rules! On Friday 28th May, the day we break up for half term, we are holding our very first Break the Rules Day here at Aberford. Wear what you want, have crazy hair for the day, wear transfer tattoos and nail polish or bring your teddy to school for the day. The list goes on so watch out for more information during that week for rule breaking ideas (if you need any!), within safety limits, of course! Each rule you break will cost you a 50p 'fine' and all the proceeds will go towards school funds to support the children's education and subsidise fun events.

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Crossley
