Message from Mrs Crossley

This week is National Storytelling week and Mrs Warner kicked off the week with an assembly to tell the children all about why we celebrate this. Our children love listening to stories in assembly time and we often share Bible stories or stories with a moral message and discuss what we can learn from them.

Next week we will be putting in our half termly order for books earned in our 100 read challenge so if you're very nearly there, see if you can get to 100 by Friday!

All parents evening slips need to be in by Monday so slots can be allocated. If you haven't returned a slip by Monday, Mrs Goddard will allocate you one of the remaining slots and send this information home.

Message from the office

Next Friday – 13th February:
Wear What You Love Day!

Come to school in non uniform, wearing your favourite things for a minimum donation of £1.

We have reminded all children today about uniform requirements for PE kits as we have several non-uniform colour hoodies and t shirts creeping in PE kit is black joggers and hoodie with a white or black t shirt. One small logo on the front is acceptable but no words or large logos should be worn to school.

Please also make sure you write names in PE hoodies as we very regularly get lots left around school on a Friday and it can be very difficult reuniting hoodies with their owners!
