Message from Mrs Crossley

Our book fair has arrived and will be with us until next Thursday so come and have a browse before and after school for some Autumn reading material for the children! You can pay cash or by scanning the QR codes and paying online. The Scholastic book fairs really support us in school as the commission we gain allows us to buy new books for the children who complete the 100 reads challenge each year. Last year, over 50 children completed this and got to order a book of their choice to take home and keep!

Our children have been very busy this week with school council elections and also setting our new Kindness Kids group. Our new councilors will receive their badges in Collective Worship on Monday and the Kindness Kids have already been busy around school, setting up kindness challenges for everyone!
