Message from Mrs Crossley

Our week started with our British Values workshops for each class, which our PTA kindly funded for the children. The workshops were great fun and learned so much about why democracy, rule of law, individual liberty, respect and tolerance are such important things to make our society work well.

Letters for parent consultation appointments are going out to please make sure you return it to school as soon as possible, in order to be allocated a time slot that suits you. As usual, children can come with you and either join in the appointment or wait in the staff room whilst you see the teacher.

Finally, I'm going to have to stock up on Head Teacher award stickers after this week! So many children have been to my office to show me their fantastic work!

Message from the Office

Please don't forget to visit our Book Fair next week. This will be on the playground before and after school and under the canopy if it is raining.

PTA News

We will be holding our first PTA meeting of the academic year on Wednesday 2nd October at 2pm in school. We would love to see some new faces join our team of volunteers to help organise events for our children and hopefully raise vital funds for the school, so that the children can take part in extracurricular activities, keep our iPads/laptops up to date, help reduce the costs of some education visits and help with the costs of improving our outside area. We look forward to welcoming new families to our team.
