

Name:

Class: Elm

These are the topics we will be covering in our subjects this term:

Literacy: *Sharing books and stories:
Oxford Reading Tree stories and poems
Phonics: Phase 2 letters and sounds
Handwriting /mark making activities
Sharing news, writing/recording news
Listening activities, story composition (Pin Family)*

Numeracy: *Counting, sorting, ordering, matching, recognising numerals
Number songs, number games
Shapes: exploring/handling/using/ naming
2D shapes, making pictures and patterns
Fractions: identifying $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{3}$.
Practical halving and sharing*

Science:
*Sharing story : Can't You Sleep Little Bear?
Light: identifying sources of light,
comparing light and dark, using torches, exploring shadows. Experiencing dark/light.*

Geography:
*Maps and mapping
Looking at maps, identifying symbols
Following simple maps/trails. Exploring the local environment in and around school
Making maps of familiar areas (around school) using symbols, labels, signs*

Autumn 2019

History:
*Stone Age
Looking at Stone age life:
homes/tools/food/clothes – comparing with our own lives. Building shelters, making cave paintings, making tools
Reading stories about Stone Age life and characters, role play activities*

RE
*Founders and Leaders: Christianity (God/Jesus)
Looking at famous people, how we react to them, copy them. Family members who are important to us.
Different versions of the Christmas Story – how different characters behave/ different viewpoints
Christians helping others (following Jesus's example, Christian charities) How we can help others*

Art/D & T (including food tech)
*Observational drawings, painting and colouring
Black and white pictures (collage, painting, printing) making silhouettes, drawing round shadows.(science link)
Painting with different tools/materials (History link)
Cooking activities – bread theme
Christmas related art activities*

French
*Greetings (hello, goodbye)
Simple songs and rhymes*