

Name: Paul Hughes

Class: Willow

These are the topics we will be covering in our subjects this term:

Literacy:

Stories with familiar settings - Woods/Forest
Big Bad Owl - The Gruffalo -
Non-Fiction: Magazines - images & text
Poetry: Common theme and Christmas Poems
Oxford Reading Tree stories and poems
Write Dance
Role Play:

Science:

Light: identifying sources of light,
comparing light and dark, using torches, exploring shadows. Experiencing dark/light.

Numeracy:

Number stories 0-5
Counting
Shape

Music:

Charanga scheme: exploring instruments and songs

Geography:

Field Trips
Maps and mapping: exploring our school and Moor Park
Identifying map symbols
Following simple maps/trails.
Making maps of familiar areas (around school) using symbols, labels, signs

Autumn
2019

RE:

Founders and Leaders: Christianity
Looking at famous people and family members who are important to us.
Christmas Story throughout the world
How we can help others?

History:

Field Trips
Stone Age to Iron Age
Stonehenge and Hillforts

Art:

Basic skills: drawing with different implements
Andy Goldsworthy: Linked to Outdoor Learning
Giuseppe Arcimboldo: Collage making Junk modelling/collage (linked to History)
Christmas related art activities

French:

Greetings and simple songs
Counting 1-10, Colours
Christmas songs

PE:

Gymnastics: Gym in the Jungle
Multi-skills: Elmer

Design Tech:

Stonehenge and Hillfort model making Christmas decorations

Food Tech:

Following different recipes
Christmas treats

PSHE:

Growing & Changing, Feelings & Emotions, Families, Self-Awareness, Managing Emotions, Behaviour & Empathy