

Maple Class

We have been exploring our new topic, Transport. We have been looking at where the transport belongs in the land, sea or air. We have also been looking at signs of spring and exploring the different colours.