

Cedar Class Weekly News – 6.12.19

This week the children have been working really hard rehearsing their Nativity performance. They have coped really well with this change in routine and been great at waiting their turn and following instructions for their parts. We are very impressed with them all and we can't wait for you to see it!! They look very sweet in their costumes 😊

To tie in with this and the build up to Christmas we began the week looking at the nativity story and enjoyed exploring a range of props.

We were lucky enough to have a local choir come and perform for us this week too. It really got us feeling lovely and festive!! The children really enjoyed it.

We had lots of happy, smiley children in the hall this week having fun on the balance bikes that came in to school 😊 We are so proud of how well the children took to it. Some were apprehensive initially but soon pushed their own boundaries and went for it! They were very pleased with themselves.

We made the most of a nice dry afternoon earlier in the week and spent some time exploring our outdoor learning area. We made crafts and worked on fine motor skills using natural objects. The children enjoyed using the parachute to sing songs and throw leaves high up in to the air!

Thank you to both Zachary and Tina's families for looking after Billy Bear so well and making the effort to send photographs in. The children really do just beam when we look through the photos together!

The children look great in their Christmas jumpers. Thank you for your donations.

Have a lovely weekend everyone,

From all of the Cedar Class Team 😊 😊

This week's special mentions go to Jude for excellent communication!

Our Star this week is Zachary for walking to the hall for dinner independently, using a trampette by himself AND being a superstar during our rehearsals ALL week!!
