

Ash Class's Weekly News

19th November 2020

This Week... Sorry I didn't get chance to do last weeks blog the last couple of weeks have been interesting to say the least. In Maths we have been looking at patterns and 2d shapes. I do hope they have been singing the 2d shape song (find it on YouTube) In Literacy we have been looking at captions. Reading and writing them! In DT we have been looking at puppets and this week we made our very own emotion stick puppets. This week we also made Peanut butter mug cakes! Give them a go its so easy. Finally, we did a billion takes of our Xmas song. I will try and post a few for you to watch. As you can imagine it wasn't easy.

Next Week...

Going on a walk to Barley to see the sculpture trail.
