

Oak Class Weekly News

Week beginning 21.03.22

This Week:

It has been another busy week. Look at some of the things we have been up to:

- Learning about division by sharing equally in maths;
- Writing up our stories based on dragons;
- Making Easter cards and doing crafts;
- In RE, we wrote a 'job description' for a disciple;
- A lovely walk and some sketching in Avenham Park;
- Learning about life in a medieval castle through role-play and reading/written work.

You may know that we have been working on a book bench that is now on display in Chorley Town Centre - there is some information here if you were interested in the project or taking part in the trail: <https://checkoutchorley.com/whatsyourstory/>

Thank you so much for all the Chocolate Bingo donations. Have a lovely weekend everybody!
