

Oak Class Weekly News

Week beginning 31.01.22

This Week:

It has been an unusual week, with some time at home and some time in school. We are really glad to be able to get back to normal with class fully open again - thank you for your patience and understanding. Thanks also to all families who managed to do some learning at home, whether from the suggested activities or your own ideas.

In school we have been busy - here are some highlights:

In My Thinking and Learning, we have revisited the topic of 2D shape. We have been revising the names and properties of shapes, and we have enjoyed building a picture of a castle using 2D shapes.

In My World, the children have continued to learn about the Norman Conquest. Brandon has retained lots of facts and has been able to use his learning in role-play and drama. Lots of the children managed to match up pictures and facts - others have been dressing up as the kings involved at the time!

In My Communication and interaction, we have been describing Madam Dragon, the teacher in our story. The children did really well at choosing good describing words - Mohammed managed to do this without any help at all. Well done!

Next Week:

If all goes to plan, we are really looking forward to our rearranged visit to the coast on Thursday. Look out for letters in bags on Monday.

School closes for half term at the end of the day on Friday 11th February. We come back on Tuesday 22nd February.
