This Week...

This week has been action packed. We have continued to all work really hard with our communication this week and are showing fantastic progress in making requests positively using our PECS and communication books.

We really enjoyed our music lesson this week and several of us even chose new instruments to explore and play along to the music. Everyone has also enjoyed their PE lessons this week. Lots of great engagement and participation.

We have had fun exploring the new switch toys in the sensory room and had great fun exploring many different messy and creative play options too 😊

Our walks out in the community all went fantastically this week with all students showing great resilience and we all worked hard to follow staff instructions to keep us safe in the community.

Finally, we really enjoyed dressing up in our Christmas jumpers this week we hope you like our pictures? 😊
