

PRIVACY NOTICE

SUPPLIERS OF GOODS AND SERVICES

Introduction

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the Active Learning Trust and its schools uses personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing privacy notices to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about pupils.

The Active Learning Trust (the Trust) are the data controller for the purposes of data protection law.

Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is the Data Protection Education Ltd.

The personal data we hold:

We process data relating to those volunteering at our school. Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about you includes, but is not restricted to:

- Names, characteristics and contact details
- References, CVs and details of an individual's employment history, if collected as part of a bidding, tendering or engagement process
- Bank details and other financial information where it relates to an individual, such as if you're operating as a sole trader
- Any other personal information necessary to fulfil the terms of a contract we have with you
- Information relating to visits to the school, e.g., the individual's company or organisation name, arrival and departure time, car number plate

We may also collect, store and use information about you that falls into "Special Categories" of more sensitive personal data. This may include information about (where applicable)

- Information about any access arrangements that may be required
- Photographs for identification purposes
- CCTV images captured in school

We may also hold data about you that we have received from other organisations, including other schools and social services.

Why we use this data:

The purpose of processing this data is to:

- Decide whether to engage you
- Fulfil the terms of our contract with you, including payment
- Keep accurate records of the suppliers that we use
- Identify you while on the school site and keep all individuals safe
- Identify you while on the school site and keep all individuals safe. e) Keep pupils and staff safe while you are on the school site
- Keep accurate records of visits to the school

Use of your personal data for marketing purposes:

Where you have given us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling:

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

Our lawful basis for using this data:

We only collect and use personal information about you when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

- Comply with a legal obligation.
- Carry out a task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the School's / Trust's use of your data.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent, and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

Our basis for using special category data:

For 'special category' data, we only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and one of the following conditions for processing as set out in Data Protection Law:

We have obtained your explicit consent to use your personal data in a certain way.

- We need to perform or exercise an obligation or right in relation to employment, social security or social protection law
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e., protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you.
- We need to process it for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims
- We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation
- We need to process it for health or social care purposes, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health or social work professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
 - We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for public health reasons, and the processing is done by, or under the direction of, a health professional or by any other person obliged to confidentiality under law
- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest

For criminal offence data, we will only collect and use it when we have both a lawful basis, as set out above, and a condition for processing as set out in Data Protection Law. Conditions include:

- We have obtained your consent to use it in a specific way
- We need to protect an individual's vital interests (i.e., protect your life or someone else's life), in situations where you're physically or legally incapable of giving consent
- The data concerned has already been made manifestly public by you
- We need to process it for, or in connection with, legal proceedings, to obtain legal advice, or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal right
 - We need to process it for reasons of substantial public interest as defined in legislation

Collecting this information:

While most of the information we collect from you is mandatory, there is some information that you can choose whether or not to provide to us.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you, we make it clear whether you must provide this information (and if so, what the possible consequences are of not complying), or whether you have a choice.

Most of the data we hold about you will come from you, but we may also hold data about you from:

- Our Local Authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns
- Government departments or agencies
- Police forces, courts and tribunals - to meet our legal obligations to share information with them

How we store this data:

Personal data we collect as part of the job application process is stored in line with [school name] Data Protection Policy.

We will retain, and dispose of, the personal data of all unsuccessful job applicants in accordance with the Retention Schedule set out in the Information and Record Management Society's Toolkit for Academies.

We will retain, and dispose of, the personal data of all visitors in accordance with the Retention Schedule set out in the Information and Record Management Society's Toolkit for Schools.

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal information being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed.

We will dispose of your personal data securely when we no longer need it.

Data sharing:

We do not share information about you with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about you with:

- Our Local Authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns, exclusions and to ensure that it can carry out its statutory duties
- Schools or pupils are moving to – to help us support our pupils who are moving to another school by easing the transition process

- The Department for Education – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it
- The pupil's family and representatives – to provide regular reports on the pupil's progress and to ensure the pupil's safety whilst at school
- Educators and examining bodies – to meet our legal obligations and allow the pupil to be entered into assessments
- Ofsted – to meet our legal obligations
- Suppliers and services providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Survey and research organisations – to help us fulfil our public task
- Health authorities – to meet our legal obligation and to protect pupils
- Professional advisers and consultants – to help us fulfil our public task
- Charities and voluntary organisations – to help us fulfil our public tasks and to protect our pupils
- Police forces, courts, tribunals – to meet our legal obligations to share information with them

Your rights:

How to access the personal information we hold about you:

Individuals have a right to make a 'Subject Access Request' to gain access to personal information that we hold about them. If you make a Subject Access Request, and if we do hold information about you, we will:

- Give you a description of it
- Tell you why we are holding and processing it, and how long we will keep it for
- Explain where we got it from, if not from you
- Tell you who it has been, or will be, shared with
- Let you know whether any automated decision-making is being applied to the data, and any consequences of this
- Give you a copy of the information in an intelligible form

Individuals also have the right for their personal information to be transmitted electronically to another organisation in certain circumstances.

Other rights:

Under data protection law, individuals have certain rights regarding how their personal data is used and kept safe, including the right to:

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decision being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights please contact the Head of Data at the Active Learning Trust via dataprotection@activelearningtrust.org. These rights can be exercised by a Parent / Carer on behalf of a child on the same basis that they may make a Subject Access Request.

Complaints:

We take complaints about our collection and use of personal information very seriously.

If you think our collection or use of personal information is unfair, misleading or inappropriate, or have any other concern about our data processing, please raise this with us in the first instance.

To make a complaint, please contact the Head of Data at the Active Learning Trust via dataprotection@activelearningtrust.org.
