

Welcome to Cambridgeshire & Suffolk

Teaching at Active Learning Trust schools across Cambridgeshire and Suffolk opens up an exciting opportunity to live and work in these thriving and diverse counties in the East of England.

Cambridgeshire

The world-famous city of Cambridge, with its endless opportunities to enjoy historic and cultural activities, as well as fantastic shopping, dining and entertainment is not to be missed!

Elsewhere in the county, market towns such as Ely and Huntingdon also have much to offer, along with a welcoming community feel. In the rural areas, you can relax in wide-open landscapes and peaceful surroundings.

Suffolk

Suffolk boasts a stunning coastline and picturesque towns including Instagram hot spots Southwold and Aldeburgh where you can indulge in culinary treats and browse unique shops.

In Ipswich, you will find a lively and diverse town with everything from quayside restaurants and bars to a passionately supported football club with a proud tradition of European success.
