Dear Parent/ Carer,

Thank you for all of your fantastic efforts with costumes for World Book Day. This week we have our first Litter-Free Day on Thursday. It would be absolutely brilliant if we could avoid any plastic wrappers on this day. Thank you to Mrs Culham and the eco-council for arranging this day and bringing this to the awareness of the school community.

Parents Evening

A reminder that a communication has been sent out to families (with the exception of Juniper Class) to make appointments for the various parent evenings that are due to take place over the coming weeks. It is expected that the parents evening appointments for Juniper will take place after Easter, however this will be confirmed when Mrs Dunn returns.

Staff Car Park

A reminder that the car park is reserved access and parking for staff and pre-arranged visitors. It is not a public right of way and cars using this have caused additional danger for children and pedestrians when being collected from clubs. There have also been several instances reported where staff have been unable to leave the site due to parents coming in and blocking the entrance.

I would also remind families that the spaces in the area outside the school is parking reserved for Maiden Erleigh staff. Therefore, Aldrynton families in cars should not be attempting to access either site by car. Thank you in advance for your support.

Reflection Space

Thank you to all of you that have taken time to write in. Having considered what is possible in light of numbers and supervision, a decision has been made to draw attention to the existing quiet area (marked outside the entrance to Sycamore and Juniper classes). This area could be used for personal reflection as part of its existing remit as a quiet area.

Collection Arrangements

It has been brought to our attention that when some children are being collected by some older siblings, the older siblings are bringing their friends with them. On occasion, it has been noted that inappropriate language is being used on the school site from groups of older siblings and their friends. If your child is collected by an older sibling, please could you mention that it should only be them collecting and not their group of friends.
