11th November

Dear Parent/ Carer,

Thank you to families for their improved levels of punctuality last week. On most days, we were under 1% late, which is a great improvement on the last week of half term.

Today, we hosted a two-minute silence for Remembrance Day. We were once again fortunate to have a bugle player from Maiden Erlegh perform the Last Post to the children.

Children in Need: Friday 14th November

Children may come into school wearing non-uniform on this day in return for a minimum donation of £1 to Children in Need. Donations are to be made via the link below:

Attendance Letters

We regularly review your child's attendance levels at school as high levels of attendance at school and strong rates of academic progress are positively correlated. As a result, we flag to families where attendance levels have become a concern. This is typically when attendance levels have dropped below 90%. Absence levels below 90% and are classified as persistently absent by the government.

Last week, we sent out our first letters of the year to notify you if your child's absence has dropped below 90%. At this point of the year, each day carries a greater percentage proportion, so we will continue to monitor attendance carefully. Where attendance doesn't show an improvement, families will receive a second letter inviting them into a meeting to discuss any barriers to improving their child's attendance figure further.

Parent Evenings: Wednesday 26th and Thursday 27th November

Thank you to all of you that have booked appointments already and reminder to book if you haven't done so already. I have spoken to the new catering company (Innovate) and they will be looking to serve samples of some of the school dinners. Please help yourselves to samples on the evening. Either Mrs Fenning (Wednesday) or myself (Thursday) will be present on the evening and will be available to talk. We will also be using a bell system to ensure that appointments run to time, so please arrive on time, or you may miss your slot. Books will be available to be viewed in your child's classroom after the appointment.

FINAL CHANCE: PTA Create a Card/Gifts Order
