18th March 2025

Dear Parent/ Carer,

Thank you for your support with our first Litter-Free Day last Thursday. Mrs Culham presented the findings to the children in assembly last week..

This week we are celebrating Neuro-Diversity Week in school and Mrs Blakely launched the week with a special assembly yesterday. We also have Y1 scooter training today and the EYFS parent evenings taking place over Teams. On Friday, we will be raising awareness of the UNESCO World Water Day in assembly. The PTA have kindly arranged for a special water activity sheet that will go out to all families after the assembly on Friday.

Mrs Hepburn

Sadly at the end of this term, we will be saying farewell to Mrs Hepburn, who will be retiring after nearly 27 years at Aldryngton. We wish Mrs Hepburn an enjoyable retirement and thank her for remarkable amount of time at Aldryngton.

Comic Relief

We will once again be supporting Comic Relief on Friday 21st March, where children come into school dressed in non-uniform and preferably something red. Children may also have crazy hair for the day if they wish to do so. Please could donations be made directly to Comic Relief using the link below:

A massive thank you to all that have signed up so far, with £845 raised so far. It would be great if we could break the £1000 mark for this. Thank you to the PTA for organising this event for the children.
