

All Saints CE Primary School & Nursery

Weekly Newsletter – 21st March 2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

It was lovely to get some sunshine this week and the children certainly enjoyed some outdoor learning. We have places available in our fabulous Nursery setting and have recently started an advertising push to get more parents to know that we are here and that All Saints is a great setting for children as they start their learning journey. I have attached the advert to this newsletter and we have copies in the office – if anyone could offer any support in spreading the word, we would be incredibly grateful.

from Miss Ashton and all the team.
