Dear Parents and Carers,

Alsop has a partnership with Speakers for Schools and next week they will be delivering a series of free online webinars from a range of exciting people across lots of different fields.

There will be a short talk followed by opportunities for pupils and students to ask questions. This will be a great opportunity for students to learn about social issues as well as giving them careers information, advice and guidance.

Upcoming talks include:

- Paul Williams, Producer, BBC Natural History Unit will give insights to students on the work of a Wildlife Producer for TV. He will explore with KS3+ students what it takes to make a nature programme and how they do it
- David Morrissey, Actor and Director will give a short introduction to his career and journey, then KS4-5 will be given the opportunity to submit questions for David to answer!
- Baroness Natalie Bennett, Former Leader of the Green Party will talk with KS3 students about the environment and what we can do to reduce plastic usage and waste.

A full list of talks, along with information on how to access them, can be found at the following website:

Kind regards,

Mr Bull
