Supporting reading at home

We understand how important it is for your child to feel confident when learning how to read. We have put together this handy guide with QR codes to useful links of how to help your child to read at home.

Link to a short course for parents

Link to the Sounds-write interactive reading app

Link to initial code e-books for additional reading practice

Link to extended code e-books for additional reading practice