*Please be aware that the school will be closed for nine days in January. This is needed so we can move safely from the old school building into the new one. This closure is unavoidable and will only happen in this academic year. The new building is planned to be finished by 31 December. If there is an unexpected delay, the closure dates may change. If this happens, we will let parents know as early as possible. We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.
