KS1 NATIVITY: A Miracle in Town!

KS1 were outstanding in their performances this week! Well done to them all.

All the parents and grandparents who came to watch were in for a real treat.

It means a lot to all the children and staff when they receive the support from our families.

A big thank you to Mrs Riley who designed and painted the amazing backdrop.

Breakfast with Santa and Christmas Jumper Day:

The children looked resplendent in their Christmas Jumpers today.

Thank you to the Friends are providing Breakfast with Santa for the whole school.

As Santa was unfortunately unable to attend, he sent a couple of very naughty elves who caused mayhem right across school - dancing on tables, trying on reception class coats, stealing books amongst other things - ask your child, they'll all have a tale to tell!
