

Archbishop Temple

Church of England High School

Post: Teacher of science – Physics Specialist (permanent, full-time)

Salary: MPS/UPS

Required from: 1st September 2026

Responsible to: Curriculum Leader for Science

Interviews: Friday 1st May 2026

We are looking to appoint an inspirational, dedicated, and passionate Science teacher who specialises in Physics and shares our commitment to educational excellence and social inclusion, while contributing to the leadership and growth of our Science department. The ideal candidate will be an exceptional educator, driven by research-based pedagogy, with a strong focus on maximising pupil engagement and achieving outstanding outcomes.

Science is an extremely popular subject here at Archbishop Temple Church of England High School. We have a highly dedicated, motivated and successful department made up of seven full-time teachers and one part time teacher, all of whom are experienced subject specialists. Pupils' attitudes to learning are positive, which is reflected in the consistently good results achieved at GCSE.

We have a very distinctive ethos; our motto of "faith + nurture + service" is central to our work, as we aim to keep God at the centre of all we do. This post presents a wonderful opportunity for a talented, passionate and committed teacher. You would be joining our experienced Science department at a very exciting time for all associated with the school; the successful candidate will receive the wholehearted support of a thriving governing body and a highly dedicated staff team. Further support will be received through our excellent working partnerships with Blackburn Diocese and Lancashire County Council.

Our main priorities are to maintain achievement, enhance the curriculum and support our pupils to reach their true potential. You will have the opportunity to teach highly motivated pupils in a school with a reputation for academic excellence and where there is a wide range of extra-curricular activities in which you can get involved.

Application forms and further details can be downloaded from the school's website - www.archbishoptemple.com. We are committed to equality, diversity and justice, and we warmly welcome applicants from all faiths, cultures and backgrounds. Archbishop Temple Church of England High School is committed to safer recruitment and CVs will not, therefore, be accepted. The position is subject to satisfactory DBS checks and excellent employment references. In line with Keeping Children Safe in Education 2024, an online search will be carried out as part of our due diligence on shortlisted candidates.

The closing date for applications is Monday 13th April 2026 (midday). Electronic applications are fully acceptable and these should be emailed to head@archbishoptemple.com marked for the attention of Mrs C Simpson. I hope you will consider joining our team and I look forward to receiving your application.
