DUE TO OUR SCHOOL EXPANSION, we are seeking to appoint an inspirational teacher of English who shares our commitment to educational excellence and social inclusion whilst supporting the leadership of our very successful English department.

English is at the centre of pupil achievement here at Archbishop Temple Church of England High School. We have a highly dedicated, motivated and extremely successful department made up of six full-time teachers, all of whom are experienced subject specialists. Pupils' attitudes to learning are overwhelmingly positive, which is reflected in the consistently outstanding results achieved at GCSE. At GCSE level, our pupils study the Eduqas English Language and Literature specifications, receiving up to four hours a week of lesson time with the same teacher for the entire course.

We have a very distinctive ethos; our motto of "faith + nurture + service" is central to our work, as we aim to keep God at the centre of all we do. This post presents a wonderful opportunity for a talented, passionate and committed teacher. You would be joining our experienced English department at a very exciting time for all associated with the school; the successful candidate will receive the wholehearted support of a thriving governing body and a highly dedicated staff team. Further support will be received through our excellent working partnerships with Blackburn Diocese and Lancashire County Council.

Our main priorities are to maintain achievement, enhance the curriculum and support our pupils to reach their true potential. You will have the opportunity to teach highly motivated pupils in a school with a reputation for academic excellence and where there is a wide range of extra-curricular activities in which you can get involved.
