- Before examinations, candidate not made aware of the arrangements for post-results services and the availability of senior members of centre staff after the publication of results
- Candidate not having access to a member of senior staff after the publication of results to discuss/make a decision on the submission of a results review/enquiry
- Candidate request for return of work after moderation and work not available/disposed of earlier than allowed in the regulations

- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a result (complainant to refer via exams officer to awarding body post-results services)
- Candidate (or parent/carer) unhappy with a centre decision not to support a clerical re-check, a review of marking, a review of moderation or an appeal (complainant to refer to the centre's internal appeals procedure)
- Centre fails to adhere to its internal appeals procedure
- Centre applied for the wrong post-results service/for the wrong script for a candidate
- Centre missed awarding body deadline to apply for a post-results service
- Centre applied for a post-results service for a candidate without gaining required candidate consent/permission

Additional grounds for complaint relating to results and post-results:

Raising a concern/complaint

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Armfield Academy encourages an informal resolution in the first instance.

This can be undertaken by:

- Raising the complaint in writing or in person to the head of centre (MKI)

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to:

- The form to make a formal complaint is available from Samantha Sherwood and should be returned to Keeley Palmer.

Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 school days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Complete and return the complaints form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

The head of centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the SLT (who is not involved in the grounds for complaint and has no personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within:

- 4 working weeks

Internal appeals procedure

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must:

- Follow the centre's internal appeals procedure and complete the appropriate paperwork.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within:

- 10 school days

The appeal will be referred to:

- Mark Kilmurray and Samantha Sherwood

It will be the responsibility of Samantha Sherwood to inform the appellant of the final conclusion in accordance with the internal appeals procedure.
