| 1.00-1.30 Maths | Can you draw some Valentine's Love Bugs and draw different amounts of hearts (instead of spots) on each one? Can you tell me how many hearts you have drawn on each Love Bug? | Everyone loves flowers on Valentine's Day. Can you go for a little walk or into your garden and count all of the different flowers you can see? | For today's task, your grown up could draw five hearts. They could then write the numbers 1-5 on one side of each heart, then draw the same amount of hearts on the other side. Once this is done the hearts can be cut in half and mixed up ready for you to put back together again. | Can you make some delicious pancakes following the recipe below with your grown up? You will need to find the right ingredients and measure them carefully. Enjoy! https://www.bbcgoodfood.com/recipes/easy-pancakes | Can you create a treasure map and ask a grown up to use it to find the hidden treasure? How many steps does your grown up have to take to find the treasure? Can you count all the steps? |
