

AVJS Bulletin: October 14th 2019

We have had a really great first half term and a huge thank you to all of you who attended our harvest festival assembly today and donated food for the Arnold Food Bank. I have updated the diary dates for the next half term. You may notice that there have been a couple of additions or amendments. The FOAV Christmas Disco will start at 6.30pm and finish at 8.30pm and we have added in a Christmas film night on Friday, December 13th, more details will follow. There is also a change to the date for the Year 5 and 6 Christmas party; this will now be held on Thursday, December 19th. I look forward to seeing you later this week at the parents' consultation evenings. Have a great half term holiday and we will see you on Monday, November 4th.

Other News

Following on from the previous success of the programme, Nottinghamshire Healthcare NHS Trust's School Aged Immunisation Team are able to offer all primary aged children a flu jab this year and have booked to be with us on Thursday, November 28th. The NHS Trust will be using E-consents this year. A link and a code will be emailed to you from school which will also contain further information and how you can get further support should you require it.

We just want to warn you that we have had a case of suspected chicken pox in school.

Thank you to all of you for supporting our Hello Yellow mental health awareness day. We managed to raise £230.75.

Just a quick note to let you know that all of the Panther's ice hockey tickets have been allocated.
