Other News

Well done to all our musicians who made our summer concert such a success last week. It was great to see so many of you come and support our talented children.

Our combined Summer Fair with Woodthorpe Infants School is being held on Friday, July 12th. If you can help the Friends of Arno Vale in any way on the day either setting up, working on a stall or clearing away, please let us know as your help will be greatly received. It aims to be a great event and the first time we have held a joint one with the infants school – I really hope you can make it.

As we are approaching the end of term, we would really like to reduce our mountains of lost property in school. If you think you may be missing a few items of clothing, please have a look through the lost property bins in the school the next time you are in. We are able to return labelled clothing but we do struggle to reunite unmarked clothing with its owners.

Thank you to all of you who have sent in your empty two litre plastic bottles. Thanks to the hard work of Mr Herbert, Mr Taylor and Mr Edwards, we have managed to lay the base for the greenhouse and prepared the raised beds. We still need lots more bottles though so please continue to send them in.

Year 4 will be finishing the year with a final design and technology project making pop up books. We will be starting this on July 8th. If you have one, please could your child bring in a pop up book from home? We will be sharing these and looking at the mechanisms in them and how they are made. We need a whole range of age types, so we are happy to look at books for younger children as well as more complex examples. They can start bringing them in to the classroom anytime between now and the 8th. Thank you in advance, The Y4 Team.

The Family Grapevine is a directory/magazine full of invaluable information and events for families in Nottingham and Notts and our Summer editions for July-October are now available either in print or online.

Packed with local information and great family events just in time for the main school holidays, the Family Grapevine is a really useful resource for all local families. You can now view the magazine online by clicking on the link below.
