

AVJS Bulletin: 30th June 2023

This has been a very busy week with most of our year 6 children attending transition days at their new secondary schools and our other children spending some time in their new classes. It was lovely going into each class yesterday morning and seeing them all with their new teachers; the children enjoyed themselves and will be having another transition session next week.

You will have received a letter this week informing you about the industrial action next week. As a reminder, the following classes will be closed:

Wednesday, 5th July:

3 Grey
4 Yellow
6 Blue
6 Purple (from 2.25pm)

Friday, 7th July:

3 Grey
3 White
4 Yellow
6 Blue

We are sorry for any inconvenience caused and thank you for your understanding.

The children in year 5 were transported back in time this week as they experienced their Greek day. They looked amazing in their Greek outfits and enjoyed learning about Greek theatre (and performing), the Olympics and recapping their previous learning of democracy and literature.

Our year 3 children have been enjoying a very practical maths lesson today. They were exploring how to make three dimensional shapes using spaghetti and marshmallows. This enabled them to see the properties of the shapes and engage in some very constructive mathematical discussions – and they really enjoyed themselves!

AVJS Bulletin: 30th June 2023

On Tuesday next week, we have a theatre company coming into school to perform their version of The Railway Children. This has kindly been paid for by the FOAV and we are sure that the children will enjoy it. We are also looking forward to welcoming back to Arno Vale some former pupils who are coming in for work experience next week.
