

AVJS Bulletin: 30th September 2022

It was really lovely to see so many of you come in for the MacMillan Coffee Morning today. Thank you to everyone who donated cakes and other bakery items. I would also like to thank Mrs Pennant for organising the event and our wonderful parent and staff helpers who gave up their time to make it so successful. You can still make a donation direct to MacMillan by following the link below:

We were also extremely pleased to see so many of you at our harvest festival assembly on Wednesday afternoon. Thank you for supporting us and we look forward to other events where you are able to come into school.

Just a reminder that the school photographer will be in on Monday morning for individual and family photos. If you would like to bring in a sibling who does not attend Arno Vale, please come to school between 8.00am and 8.45 am.

On Thursday next week, Miss Iremonger has arranged for all the children to have a taster drumming lesson. Each class will spend some time with a drumming teacher and then you can decide with your child whether they would like to have drumming lessons. These are provided by DCP Drums who meet our safeguarding requirements to work with the children in school. Lessons will cost £41 for a block of 6 and will be carried out during the school day.

On Tuesday, we are holding a FOAV meeting straight after school in the staff room and you are all invited to attend. If you need child care, we will be putting a film on the screen in Mr Baker's room. We hope you can make it. I have included an updated list of dates of events further on in this bulletin.

Please remember that playtime snacks should not be chocolate, cakes or sweets. Please try to include something healthy that is fruit or vegetable based, thank you.
