

Bulletin: 19th January 2024

The children in year 4 will be going to Dukes Barn next week which I know will be a brilliant experience for them. This will mean a bit of a move around with some of the staff in school. However, we have tried to minimise any disruption to the children.

Many of you will know or recognise Martha in year 6 as she has lovely long blond hair. However, this is about to change! Martha has decided to have her hair cut short on Saturday for the Little Princess Trust. This is a fantastic trust which offers real hair wigs for children and young people suffering from hair loss through cancer and other conditions. Her hair will then go to make a wig which costs £700 to make. So far Martha has raised £515 for this and if you would like to support her, you can make a donation by donating at her Just Giving page by following the link below. We are looking forward to seeing the new look Martha next week.

1 - Years 5 and 6 have enjoyed some dance lessons with Miss Elliott

Please remember when booking your child's school lunch next week, please choose either school dinners OR a packed lunch, thank you.
