

Bulletin: 26th January 2024

The children in year 4 have arrived back having had a wonderful couple of days at Dukes Barn! The staff who went have been very proud of the children, especially when they challenged themselves and put themselves out of their comfort zones. I feel sure they will all need to catch up on their sleep over the weekend. I would also like to thank the staff who have given up their time to make it such a special trip.

Just to make you aware of some menu changes for school dinners week commencing 5th February.

On Tuesday 6th February we will be serving sausages and mash instead of turkey pie, and on Thursday 8th February we will be serving a Chinese themed menu to celebrate Chinese New Year. There will be a choice of sweet and sour chicken or quorn, with rice or noodles and seasonal vegetables; pudding will be ice cream. If your child does not usually have a school dinner and would like to try Thursday's menu, you can book for this day only that week. You will need to do this via ParentPay on Sunday 4th February before midnight.

Rather than send this out as a separate item, we will include our award winners from our celebration assembly in the bulletin as follows:

It is great to hear about how inspired some of the girls are following their football training with Miss Elliott. The parents of a number of girls in year 3 have set up a girls' under 8 coaching group at Canovale Coaching. They started this last November and the girls have worked really hard at developing their skills whilst having loads of fun. However, they do need some more girls to join them in order to form a team and then play matches. Training sessions take place on Tuesdays from 5 to 6pm and all abilities are welcome.

Next week, all the children in school will be receiving first aid training which has kindly been paid for by the FOAV. This is done at an age appropriate level giving the children the skills to notice when something is wrong and what actions they can take. It is a very worthwhile course and I am sure the children will enjoy it.
