Dear Parents / Carers

On Thursday 8th December, School had a SIAS (Statutory Inspection for Anglican Schools) Inspection carried out by Caronne Field from the Carlisle Diocese. We had a fantastic day and the inspector was extremely impressed with our RE work and distinctive Christian character. The school was judged under the new, more rigorous framework, currently used to grade schools. We were thrilled to be given a 'Good' with outstanding features (Collective Worship) and the report acknowledged many of our recent developments. The report is available to view on the school website. Thank you to all involved: pupils, staff, governors and parents, for their vital contribution to the overall grading, a great team effort.

The term has been an extremely busy and exciting one with a wide variety of learning experiences for all. May I take this opportunity to thank everyone for their outstanding help and support – it's paramount to the success of our pupils.

On behalf of the staff and governors, I wish you all a magical Christmas time and a peaceful New Year – may all your Christmas wishes come true! It's time for a break and a chance to recharge the batteries, 2018 is going to be a great one...

Yours sincerely,

Mr Sharp
