Dear Parents / Carers

The final half term is here and the diary is jam-packed full of events, activities, visits and visitors – it's going to be an exciting one. See overleaf for full details.

RNLI 'Wear your wellies' day – 8th June

School will once again be supporting the RNLI by holding a 'wear your wellies' day. The day will include a whole school assembly on water safety plus our annual welly-wanging competition. A £1 donation would be gratefully accepted. Pupils will need to wear school uniform as usual but can bring a spare pair of shoes to change in to (wellies will be rather uncomfortable for the whole day!).

Science Week

We had a fantastic science week at the end of last term and the pupils thoroughly enjoyed the magical world of science. Thank you to Sara Owen and Miriam Myers for a fun-filled Friday of tests, experiments and magic tricks.

Twinning Project

We are just in the process of setting up a twinning project with a school in Senegal, Africa. It's a very exciting time and we have the support of Clare Griffel, liaison link, to help us communicate and share information. Look out for more information on the website.

Party in the Park

You've seen the posters, you've heard the news – why not pop along and support a fantastic cause. Saturday 9th June from 2pm. Proceeds support the fantastic work of the RNLI.

Standard Attainment Tests (SATs)

A huge well done to Year 2 and Year 6 pupils who recently took the national tests. Everyone has worked very hard and put a huge amount of effort into their work – we're extremely proud of you all. It's good to remember that each and every child is blessed with skills and talents that the SATs can't test. There are many ways to be smart...

Thank you for your support – enjoy the sunshine.
