

Hearts in the Landscape

Do you love Arnside & Silverdale AONB?

Join us by 1pm on Saturday 21 September to create a heart on the side of Arnside Knott to celebrate our beautiful landscape.

UK Poet Laureate Simon Armitage will be there to read a brand new poem celebrating the UK's AONBs. All attendees will receive a commemorative copy of the poem to take home.

Please wear something to reflect your role; if you are an artist you could bring a paintbrush to wave, mechanics in overalls, hikers in boots and backpacks and children in school uniform or scouts/brownie outfits. We really want to reflect the range of people who love our landscape.

Please walk on the day - there is no parking onsite.

The heart and reading will be filmed - by attending you consent for your image and that of any children you bring to be used in the final film - for social media, web, and local and national broadcast media.
