Our school vision

At Arnside National School, every individual is celebrated and helped to achieve. At the heart of everything we do is love. We aspire to live by the fruit of the spirit and we believe the greatest of these is love.

“Let all that you do be done in love.” 1 Corinthians 13: v14-16

What do we have to do as a Church of England school? A Statement of Entitlement

Sufficient dedicated curriculum time, meeting explicitly RE objectives, however organised, should be committed to the delivery of RE. This should aim to be close to 10%.

Parents and pupils are entitled to expect that in Church schools Christianity should be the majority religion studied in each year group and should be at least 60% of curriculum time.

Schools must take note that the RE entitlement is totally separate from requirements for collective worship. Collective worship must not be considered curriculum time for RE or the teaching of RE.

Who do we answer to?

SIAMS inspection focuses on the impact of the Church school's Christian vision on pupils and adults. This involves looking at the school's Christian vision, the provision the school makes because of this vision and how effective this provision is in enabling all pupils to flourish

Why is religious education relevant in our schools today?

'Compassion is the key in Islam, Christianity, Hinduism, Buddhism and Judaism. They are profoundly similar.'
