

World Book Day 2020

It's World Book Day on Thursday 5th March. This year we have decided to focus on Reading at Bedtime, so we'd like you to come to school dressed ready for bed (pyjamas/onesies/dressing-gowns) on World Book Day. We'll have a cosy whole-school bedtime reading session in the afternoon, so bring along your teddy and blanket to snuggle down with a book.

Also, we're going to make a huge display of pictures of you reading at bedtime, so please take a photo, print it out and send it in before 28th February.

We'll be having our annual Book Swap. Bring along a book that you have loved and would like to give away so that someone else can enjoy it too. You'll get the chance to take a book home with you. This day of fun and all things literary will be a fundraiser to raise money for new books for school, so we ask that you bring in a £2 contribution for the day.

We would also like to invite your friends and family to come into school during the week to read their favourite books to a class or to talk to us about their work/interests in writing or reading. Please let your teacher know if this is something you'd like to do.

During Book-Week (2nd March to 8th March), we're having a whole-school sponsored read event, where children can get sponsored for the number of minutes they read (or are read to) at home. A sponsor form is attached to this letter.

We are all looking forward to having a week devoted to celebrating reading!
