

Subject welcome days: September 2020

Before full teaching resumes on Wednesday 16th September, we are keen to have all students in, over a series of days, for a Subject Welcome Day. These days will be a chance to meet your teachers and the half groups you will be taught in for the first part of the academic year. The other half of the class will not be present online during these initial subject welcome sessions.

Date	Students required to attend	Information
Wednesday 9 th September	A2 students (A-Level, mixed programme and full vocational): Week A students only.	Students follow their normal timetable on this day, apart from tutorial and GCSE classes (these will begin 16 th September).
Thursday 10 th September	A2 students (A-Level, mixed programme and full vocational): Week B students only.	Students follow their normal timetable on this day, apart from tutorial and GCSE classes (these will begin 16 th September).
Friday 11 th September	Level 2 and A1 Level 3 full vocational Morning session (9am – 12pm) - Week A students only Afternoon session: (1-4pm) -Week B students only	Students do not follow normal timetable . Instead, they will attend a morning (Week A) or afternoon session (Week B). On arrival, students will be directed to the correct room.
Monday 14 th September	A1 A-Level and Mixed study programme Week A students only.	Students follow their normal timetable on this day, apart from tutorial and GCSE classes (these will begin 16 th September).
Tuesday 15 th September	A1 A-Level and Mixed study programme Week B students only.	Students follow their normal timetable on this day, apart from tutorial and GCSE classes (these will begin 16 th September).
Wednesday 16 th September	Normal timetable starts. Week A students in college.	All students in week A follow their full timetable in college on Wed 16 th , Thursday 17 th and Friday 18 th September. Week B students join lessons from home.
Monday 21 st September	Normal timetable. Week B students in college.	All students in week B follow their full timetable in college. Week A students join lessons from home.
Monday 28 th September	Week A in college	Week A and B system continues until at least October half-term. All students follow their timetable when in college, and join lessons remotely on their weeks not in college.