

Role	English Subject Ambassador – Teaching & Learning Committee
Time Commitment	Variable
Vacancies	5
Suitable for Years	All years
Job description	Support the English faculty in promoting a love for English. Help the English faculty with organisational tasks such as: collecting pupils for their reading slots, ensuring the department is well stocked with books and stationary, recommending books that you have enjoyed. Promote English events and SCAMPS around school and help staff to organise and run them.
Leadership skills focus	Teamwork and collaboration It is important to work successfully as a team, especially during the planning and running of English events. Confidence You must have the confidence in yourself to promote a love for English to other pupils. Also, have confidence in your own creative ideas and suggestions to the English faculty in how we can continue to make the department better. Reliable We need trustworthy pupils as our leaders. Attendance and punctuality are key. We need to be able to rely on you to complete your jobs to the best of your ability. Effective Communication You must be able to communicate clearly with both staff and other pupils. We would rely on you to spread the message about any events or SCAMPS we are running. Approachable and supportive Ensure you remain friendly enough for other pupils to ask for you for information. Be helpful and kind when other pupils need it.
Key responsibilities	As an English Student Leader you will be expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Assist with organisation of the department. • Promoting the department as a whole, including a love for the subject, events and SCAMPS. • Represent the English faculty and embrace the PROUD ethos. • Support students by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Modelling an outstanding attitude to English and the wider school. • Offering help and advice on how to get involved. • Encouraging students to demonstrate their own abilities.
Staff member to contact for further information	Mrs Murray Miss Horton