

Role	Computing Ambassador
Suitable for Years	All year groups
Job description	To be an ambassador for the Computing faculty showcasing your knowledge and understanding of computers, networks and programming. Using the above knowledge, you will help other students within your year group to become masters of computer science just like yourselves.
Leadership skills focus	Problem solving- You will need to work out the best way to help and support other students with their computing work. Effective Communication- You need to be able to listen to other student's problems, interpret them and then use verbal communication to convey solutions to their problems. Approachable and supportive- You need to be approachable to other students in your year group and supportive of their worries and needs in relation to computing
Key responsibilities	As Computing Ambassador you will be expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Attend Computing club • Attend ambassador meetings when required Support students by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Helping other students in your year group when they are struggling with topics or homework • Run activities at computing clubs • Represent the faculty at school events
Staff member to contact for further information	Mr Ashworth