Synod 2021

On Saturday June 19th 2021, 420 people gathered for the meeting of the Synod of the Archdiocese of Liverpool, including Lay Members, Priests with an appointment in the Diocese, members of Religious Congregations, seminarians and retired priests, as well as a number of Observers and others specially invited. Voting took place on 19 Recommendations and all 19 Recommendations received overwhelming support.

The 7 Recommendations that received the most votes were on

1. Evangelisation: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan heed the call of the Church to be courageous in guiding all Catholics to deepen their relationship with Jesus, and to engage in our mission to help make Jesus known and loved in our world.'
2. Lay Ministry: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan must include honouring the many vocations of all the baptised, women and men alike. This will also include a strong commitment to lay ministry including training employed ministers, supporting volunteer ministers, and coordinating their work alongside the clergy.'
3. A More Inclusive Church: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan include dialogue with those who feel excluded, in order to develop initiatives so that the whole Church can reflect on what it means to be more inclusive.'
4. Young People and Young Adults: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan include a plan to assist parishes in understanding, meeting, forming and welcoming young people and young adults, and developing locally employed and volunteer youth ministers to work with young people and young adults.'
5. Catholic Schools: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan include a comprehensive review of how we hand on and nurture the Catholic faith within the school context.'
6. Love of Neighbour: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan include training for parish volunteers who can accompany those most in need; giving special attention to those who are housebound, sick, or immigrants, and to those who are members of cultural and ethnic minorities.'
7. Governance and Synodality: 'We, the people of the Archdiocese, recommend that the pastoral plan as part of our growing commitment to synodality, develop a process that ensures women are equal, valued, visible and heard.'

Synod Members were also invited to say which of all the Recommendations were most important: They said: Evangelisation, Lay Ministry, & Young People. The full results can be found in the July edition of the Catholic Pic and at www.synod2020recommendations.org.uk

What happens next? This weekend there is a Pastoral Letter from the Archbishop, who will prepare a Pastoral Plan in the light of all that the Synod has said. This will be announced on the 1st Sunday of Advent 2021.

The course will offer lectures and discussion around common themes related to the rationality of the Catholic Faith, dealing with many frequently-asked questions, for example around the relationship of faith and science. Residential and non-residential options are available. The course will go ahead assuming the lifting of Covid restrictions in July. Any bookings will be fully refunded in the event of an inevitable cancellation. For more information and registration is at: <https://christianheritagecentre.com/events/faith-and-reason/>
