Latest Developments

Many thanks to those who made contact having seen the recording of the Blessing of Palms last weekend. While, as one person said, it was sad to see an empty Church, I hope it helped you to feel still part of what is going on here. It was pointed out to me that I had lost the opportunity to do what I like best, which is to drown you with holy water but, as I said in response, there will be plenty of other opportunities!! For those who haven't seen the video, it is available at <https://youtu.be/MH9QQt1TtY0>

Now that Our Lady's website is now up and running, the newsletter will be to see the newsletter each week there at www.ourladybryn.org.uk
Simply click on 'Parish Organisations and Newsletter' on the top right hand box.

To help those at home who will miss hearing the scripture readings between Holy Thursday and Easter Sunday, these have been recorded in a file that can be accessed via WeTransfer. You need to type <https://tinyurl.com/vgmgs49> into your internet browser. The link will take you to the WeTransfer website. Click on 'Agree', then on 'Download', and a folder called 'Triduum Readings by David Crystal' will be downloaded to your computer, usually into your Downloads folder. If the file appears as a zip file, click to open it and see the folder which contains separate recordings of each reading.

On Holy Saturday, April 11, at 4.00pm, Archbishop Cesare Nosiglia of Turin will lead a liturgy of prayer and contemplation in an extraordinary veneration of the Holy Shroud. This will be broadcast live on TV and social media. The Archbishop said: 'Thousands and thousands of people, young and old, healthy and sick have asked me, at this time of such serious difficulty, if we could pray in Holy Week in front of the Shroud to implore, before the image of the dead and resurrected Christ that the sacred cloth presents us in such a concrete way, to ask him for the grace to overcome evil as he did on the cross, trusting in the goodness and mercy of God. Thus, this time of contemplation will make available to everyone throughout the world, the image of the Sacred Cloth that reminds us of the passion and death of the Lord, but which also opens our hearts to faith in the resurrection. Love is stronger: this is the Easter announcement of the Shroud that fills our hearts with gratitude and faith. Yes, the love with which Jesus gave us his life is stronger than any suffering, disease and contagion, any trial and discouragement. Nothing and no one can ever separate us from this love, it unites us to him with an indissoluble bond.'
