Deanery Station Mass

Archbishop John Sherrington will celebrate a Station Mass for the Wigan & Leigh Deanery at 7.00pm on Tuesday 21st October at St. John's Church, Standishgate, Wigan.

As this is the first opportunity the Archbishop has had to meet the people of the Deanery, I hope many of you will take this opportunity to meet him. All are welcome.

Holy Year Pilgrimage to Rome

There has been sufficient response for us to confirm a 5-day Holy Year Pilgrimage to Rome from the 17th-21st November this year. The cost is £835 per person sharing a twin room or £960 for a single room, including flights, dinner, bed and breakfast at the Cardinal Hotel St. Peter's, with visits to the Major Basilicas and weekly Papal Audience. Booking forms are available this weekend for those interested.

Legion of Mary

The Legion has set up a lending library in the Smith Room at Our Lady's with a good selection of religious books for anyone to loan out. There's no limit to how many you can borrow or for how long, just sign them out in the book on top of the bookcase.

Ashton Food Bank

With regret, we were informed last week that the organisers of the Ashton Food Bank have decided that now is the time for them to close. Our thanks go to all who have supported the Food Bank over the years. As a result, we will no longer be taking any donations of food.
