'The Christian community welcomes you with great joy.'

Bishop David Oakley

Some of you may have seen distressing reports during the week regarding Bishop David Oakley, Bishop of Northampton. The following statement has been made by Archbishop Richard Moth on behalf of the Bishops' Conference of England & Wales:

'News of the charges brought against Bishop David Oakley (Bishop of Northampton) is deeply distressing for all, both within the Catholic community and beyond.

"We are profoundly aware that the report of this allegation may reawaken painful memories for many people and again offer an unreserved apology to those who have been hurt by abuse in the Catholic Church in England and Wales.

"In this moment we would like to provide pastoral reassurance on the commitment of the Church to safeguarding. The Catholic Church in England and Wales maintains a zero-tolerance policy for abuse in the Church and in wider society, and we are cooperating fully with the statutory authorities.

"Our immediate focus is on providing pastoral support and ensuring that we, as the Church, can continue our mission safely and transparently. Anybody who comes to our parishes, schools and communities must be safe and we are resolute in our commitment to safeguarding.

"We reiterate the open invitation from the Bishops to meet with and listen to victims and survivors, so that we can learn from and be guided by their experiences as we continue to make our communities safe places. We are committed to continual review and development, assisted by the independent auditing work of the Catholic Safeguarding Standards Agency, so that all our communities are places of safety and sanctuary for all."

If you are concerned about the safety of a child or vulnerable adult and feel they are in immediate danger, please call the police. If you wish to report any non-urgent concerns, please contact your local social services or the Archdiocesan Safeguarding Team direct at safeguarding@rcaol.org.uk or Mark Robson on 0151 522 1013 / 07585761965 or Claire Newton 0151 522 1043 / 07384643237
