In the news this week

Eleven-year-old Bodhana Sivanandan from London has become the youngest person ever to earn the woman grandmaster title in chess. She achieved this while playing for England at an international competition in Uzbekistan. Bodhana said she was happy with her achievement and wanted to keep making history.

Things to talk about at home ...

- > How do you think adults might feel competing against someone much younger than them?
- > What could you teach someone older than you?
- > Should age decide what we're allowed to do?
- > When might an age limit be fair?
