What does the school do particularly well?

- Nurtures my child very well and helps him gain confidence in his abilities
- Trips
- Gives children the correct environment to grow in confidence
- Communication and being very helpful even with problems at home.
- everything
- Cares for and fully understands our child's needs
- Provides a safe, effective and happy environment for learning
- Everything
- Keep me informed with the progress of my child
- Effective teaching and positive values
- Communicate with parents. The personal touch. Put the children first. Create a fun environment. Movie nights.
- Treats my child as an individual and finds her strengths

Everything! The staff and leadership of the school is fully supportive of the children's teaching and learning and allows them to fulfill their potential in every area -thank you for all your hard work
Everything
School does everything well
Giving my daughter a positive self image
Create a happy and vibrant learning environment for my child.
Educating life skills which are important for adulthood
Out
Making pupils more confident
Build confidence and are great at supporting the family as a whole
Teach Ansdan
Communicate and understand
Does a good job.
I love the attitude that staff have about the learning development of my child
Treats all children equally
I think it's fantastic that the children have so many opportunities to go out in the community.
Teach
They always keep me informed of events and activities that are happening during the week.
Spends the time needed to help Kieran in his weakest areas
The school values each individual pupil & strives to gain the best from them
Bought my child on loads
Know our child well
Communicates well with parents and looks after the concerns of the kids
Treat all children as individuals and differentiates to their needs. Topic/project experiential learner led learning is evident.
Supportive and loving environment, our daughter really enjoys coming to school
Enrichment activities

What improvements do you feel have been made this year?

Reading and writing
End of year report was fantastic for the parents and pupil to read and discuss
His talking and politeness.
Everything is fine
Staff wise nothing at all.....! Very disappointed about holiday club
Confidence building
Improved security
Fantastic detailed report, pleasure to view & read.
Made friends and behaviour improved
Speech
None
Natasha's progress has been great this year.

Social skills have improved immensely
Security fence, additional trips to encourage use of money in real life experience, ICT,SALT.
Facebook and text service has been great for keeping us informed of what's happening
Security with the new entrance system
Communication- really like the new news letters/flyers
A lot in all his subjects
Socially more aware and getting really independent
Progression of my child's learning
Online school updates
The school is constantly making improvements the cycle track is fab.
None needed
I wasn't particularly active in the schooling last year so I have nothing to compare with.
Improved confidence socially and academically
Nothing
Communication & reporting
I feel that in My child's final year she has been pushed to work to the maximum of her ability
The move over to electronic evidence will be a positive improvement.
Email communications and building security noticeably improved
Cycle track

How do you think the school could be improved and developed further?

I can't think of anything.
Let me know regularly of child's progress
Holiday club.....!
N/a
Already good
School leaving times the specified end time of school is 3.15 however pupils leave earlier which is a struggle when parents are working. There is also no after school club which my son enjoyed.
More parking. After school clubs.
Training for parents on signing
N/A
More activities at lunchtime. Extra curricular activities outside of school time.
I think the children need more homework
More links with external activities (brownies / guides etc)
Girls club was great, a real positive impact on my daughter pity funding was unavailable due to government cutbacks was unable to continue.
16-18 years education would be brilliant.
None
Honest answer is I don't know where improvements could be as I am so pleased with the school in general
Can on like they have been doing

Can't think of anything!
No
Doing a great job with committed staff
I am happy with everything.
I don't think much could be improved
Better access and parking although this would be a problem
By providing a post 16 college for those pupils who would not cope well in mainstream environment
Nothing
I think the school is pretty much as good as it gets and no real improvements are needed
Develop links with main stream secondary schools.
By having a 16 - 19 capability!!!
Nothing

Na
Absolutely amazing school with amazing staff.....truly a wonderful environment for my daughter.....couldn't be happier with progress.....bring back the holiday club.....please.....!
Very very happy with our child's progress
This is an excellent school for children with learning disabilities
The best decision we made was moving our child to this school, such a positive, caring and safe environment.
I am happy with Josephs progress.
We are delighted with school. My child is very happy, loves school and all the opportunities it has offered. It is incredibly well led by a vibrant engaging headteacher who knows his pupils. Thank you to all the staff for their hard work.
I feel the homework is a good balance - hence the answers given around homework
I just want to thank all the staff at astley park for all the years of hard work you have put in and my child has had the best start he could possibly have to support him in his future life.
I love everything that the school do with my child. I have a lot of admiration for the head and his staff for the way he treats the children. I know that my child is at a school that wants him to learn and develop. Thank you so very much for everything.
Good school Fantastic Headmaster
Really happy this year with progress and being kept informed.
I am very grateful for all the help & support we have been given over the past 12 years. Astley park school is a fantastic school and I will be sad to say farewell. Keep up the good work!! Thank you
Nothing
Through out my child's time at astley park all the teachers and members of staff have been very approachable and friendly
My son is gaining invaluable life skills as well as academic skills, I am extremely happy with this balance and how he's developing into a confident independent young man.

Thanks to all the staff and supporters at school - we have been blessed that our daughter has had such a safe and nurturing space to grow up in and we will remember your school with great affection. Thank you. Lynn and Gareth Hughes

Thank you for making this experience of school so positive
